FIFTEEN CENTS

THAT'S MY MOM — Rosie Passarella is proud Mother of Year judged from entries in short essay contest sponsored by Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry. She will receive many prizes donated by Antioch merchants and a framed poem from Chamber. Village, township to hire Antioch teens

Both the Village of Antioch and Antioch Township will be taking part in the employment of students from Antioch High School during the summer. Through a work study program, students that will be returning to high school next year are eligible to be employed by governmental agencies. "Antioch and Lindenhurst governments will be participating in the employment program," stated Adrian Mueller, vocational education coordinator at ACHS.

"The program is initiated depending on a number of things," Mueller added. Those points include the unemployment rate in the county and the dropout status of the individual schools. Antioch High was not eligible last year. Students must be enrolled in a vocational course in the school.

GOVERNMENTS THAT participate in the program pay only 20 percent of the wage for the student. "We will be paying only about 60 cents per hour," stated township supervisor Jim Fields. "This is a great opportunity for these kids, and it's worth doing."

The township will be employing two teens, one in the office and one in the field, while the village will employ their help through the park department.

One dead; four injured

Four people were transported to Victory Memorial Hospital by the Antioch Rescue Squad, and one person pronounced dead at the scene after a mid-day accident on Rte. 173 on Mother's Day.

Lake County Chief Deputy Coroner Edmund Van Dien pronounced 58-year-old Robert Hummel of Delavan, Wis., dead after the car he was driving was struck head on by a pickup truck. Passengers in the car, Helen Hummel, 57, also of Delavan and Brandon Scott, 8, of Clinton, along with driver of the Residents praise township board

The flooding problem has been held at bay in the Heart of Lakes Subdivision, as a joint effort between homeowners and township officials secured two cross pipes and a ditch to channel the water overflow in the low-lying area. "The residents contributed a brilliant effort in the project to straighten out their situation," stated Dick Harlan, township clerk.

According to Harlan, the residents helped by digging a ditch to channel the water across Mallard Ave., and the township put in cross pipes under the road to aid the water drainage. Representatives from the subdivision attended the May 8 township board meeting and thanked the board for their help. "You do a real good job," Robert Axen said of the township officials.

Also, the secretary of the subdivision resident's association, asked the board for their cooperation in another problem they were experiencing near their Grass Lake property. "We can't get our boats in," Luanne Lukaszewski said. "The channel is filled up so that it is impossible."

TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR Jim Fields stated that he would write to the state to try and get help for the residents. "The area in question belongs to the state," Axen pointed out. "We just want to know what process we have to go through to get the place cleaned out."

One of the problems that happens if the cleaning can be done is that of dumping the sludge. "The channels in this area all are suffering from being clogged," stated board member Dave Heath. "Then the state won't let you dump the sludge just anywhere because of the possibility of bacteria," he added.

In other activity, Harlan reported on the success of a new investment strategy. "We are investing more money for a shorter period of time, thus getting better return," he stated. Fields added that the township is holding off on paying some of their bills. "Everyone else waits to pay bills so why not us?" Fields said. "Besides, it gives a little more time for the money to earn interest."

Mom made pretty happy

The winner of the 1980 Mother of the Year contest sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry has been announced by executive secretary Dixie Sparks. The winner will receive, in addition to the prizes listed last week, items from other members of the Chamber.

The expanded list includes a flight bag from Antioch Travel; a flag kit from the Antioch News; macrame hanger from Ace Tv & Antenna; a bottle of Amaretto from Brauhaus; a gift from Ace Hardware; an ice cream cake from White's Ice Cream Parlor; a donut maker from Western Auto; a $25 savings account from the State Bank of Antioch; and gift certificates from Stanley's Men's Fashions, the Yellow Brick Road, and Harbor Ridge Country Club.

The contest was open to all grade schoolers in the Antioch area.

First grader Micki Passarella was proclaimed winner after much contemplation on the part of the judges. Entrants had to complete in 25 words or less, "My mother is the greatest because". Micki did just that, netting her mother the generous list of prizes given by the Antioch merchants.

Micki is seven and attends St. Peter's School. Her dad, Michael, is a veterinarian in Antioch. She has one brother, Christopher, and is active in Brownies. She enjoys helping her dad at his office, and the entire family enjoys speed skating.

Getting special recognition for their essays were fifth grader, Jackie McClellan, 10, attending Channel Lake School and 12-year-old Indus Gagnon, a seventh grader at St. Peters.

Wells represents Antioch at O'Brian seminar

Ed Wells, Antioch High School sophomore, participated in the 1980 Illinois Leadership Seminar of the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation, held April 18-20 at the Palmer House in downtown Chicago.

Among the speakers at the two-and-one-half-day seminar, on the theme, America's Incentive System, were Illinois Lt. Governor David C. O'Neal, WBBM-TV sportscaster Johnny Morris, "Donahue" producer Darlene Hayes, Les Brann, president of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce and other leaders in business, industry, sports, communications and the arts.

More than 135 high school sophomores from Illinois who had exhibited outstanding leadership abilities attended the seminar.

This year some 4,000 high school sophomores in 37 states participated in seminars sponsored by the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation. Each state will send two representatives, chosen at the leadership seminars, to the Foundation's International Seminar, which will take place in Los Angeles in July.

The Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation is now in its 22nd year.

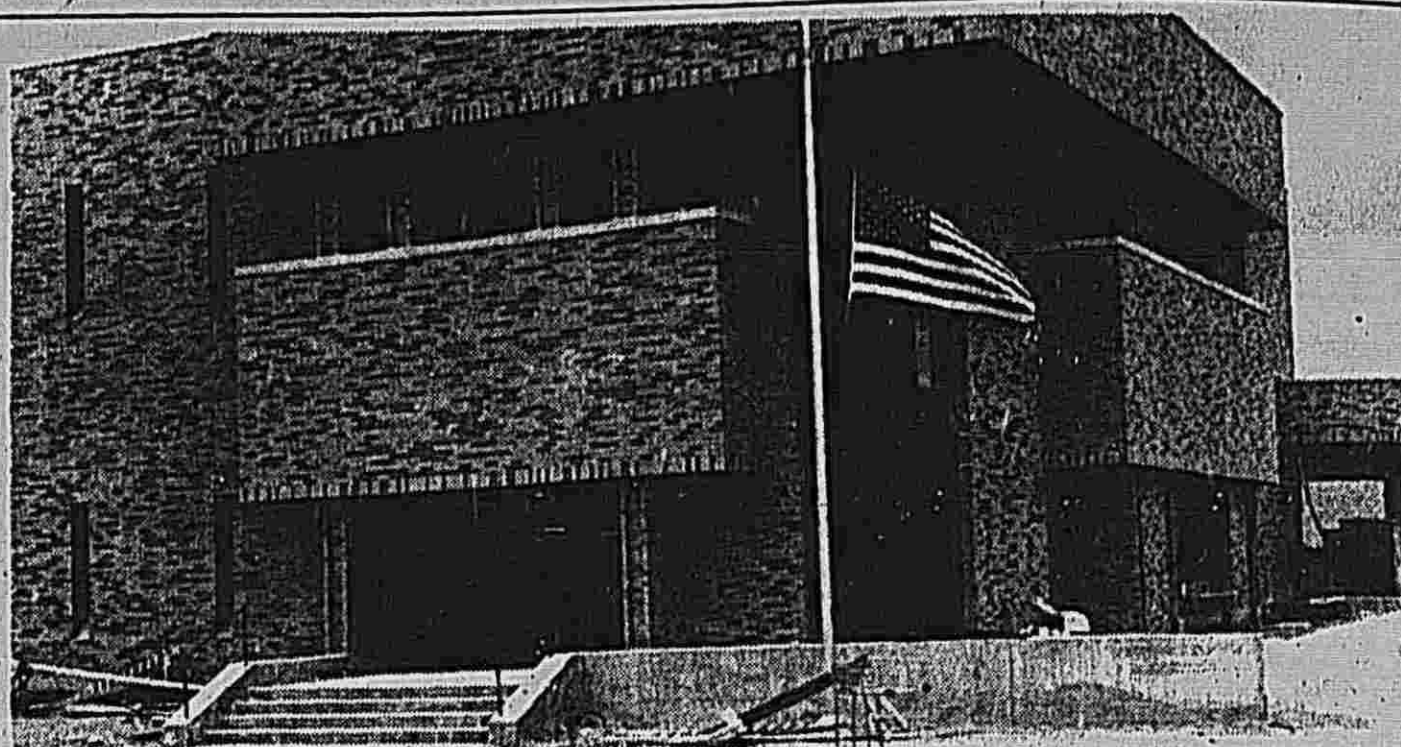

Wells stated that informal discussion groups were held, and after each speaker during the weekend, questions were asked.

Two representatives were chosen from the conference to attend the national conference in Miami. According to Wells, the participation in discussion helped in the choosing. "We also had to complete two essay questions," he said. "The topics were on what leader we admired most, and what leadership qualities we thought we had. Many people were really involved, and the two that were chosen to go to the national convention were happy to be chosen."

NEW ENTRANCE — New Spafford St. entrance at State Bank of Antioch is in use. New teller stations were put into use on May 8, and target finish date for remodeling and new addition is set for mid-summer. — Photo by Lisa Wilkie.

State Bank shooting for summer completion

According to Richard Daniel, senior vice president at the State Bank of Antioch, tellers at the newly remodeled bank facility began operating Thursday, May 8. The addition and remodeling are expected to be completed by mid-summer, Daniel said.

The 85-year-old institution has a relocated main entrance to the west side on Spafford St. The old entrance is in the process of being updated. For the time being, one night deposit can be used at the new drive-up lanes on the east side of the building.

THERE IS A new third floor and new rooms in the basement upping the square foot total to 40,480. Some of the most striking additions include many new meeting rooms and a community room expected to open after completion of all the remodeling.

The number of teller stations has increased from 11 to 17, while the second floor will provide offices for installment loans, marketing, public relations, and credit. The basement will house much storage and an expanded lounge area for employees.

"The whole process has been on schedule so far," Daniel said. "The updated facility will provide much convenience for users of our facility."

Architects for the addition were Bleck and Bleck, while the general contracting was through Joseph J. Henderson and Sons of Gurnee.

Antioch Rotary to host international members

They will arrive in Antioch around 4 p.m., and enjoy a party hosted by Bill Barr with Antioch dignitaries in attendance. Each member of Rotary will host a guest for dinner. Scheduled departure from Antioch is 10 p.m.

Gifts from various organizations will be presented to the guests, including small bottles of Jim Beam from Regal China; Currier and Ives tv tray from Quaker Industries; carry-all bags from Ben Franklin; copper tree from the Chamber; a pewter gift from the Rotary; and a select prize donated by Pickard China.

Jaycettes ready to roll in autism event

The Antioch Jaycettes will sponsor bowling to benefit autistic children Sunday, May at the Antioch Bowl. Bowlers may come any time on that day to bowl three games for autism. The Antioch Bowl will be open from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Pledge sheets are available at Antioch Bowl. Proceeds will benefit autistic children through the Elmhurst College Speech Clinic.

Guests expected to bowl include Jim Edwards, the Illinois Jaycee state chairman of the Jaycee's Foundation for Autism. Edwards has been active in the formation of the Foundation and will be bringing an autistic child with him to the benefit bowl.

George Spence, who teaches autistic children aged three through 12 in a special classroom situation at SEDOL in Gages Lake, will also be there and will be happy to answer any questions about autism. There will be pamphlets available on the subject provided by the department of health, education and welfare.

May local people will also be there on Sunday, including Mayor Michael Haley.

The Jaycettes urge everyone to come out and join in the fun. According to Bonnie Bruski, project chairman, the Jaycettes are hoping for a big turnout of bowlers at what they hope might be the club's first annual bowling for autism project.

There will be prizes for the bowlers, including many prizes.

For further information about autism or how to obtain sponsor sheets to sign up to bowl on Sunday, call Bonnie Bruski at 395-5047 or Kathy Brey at 395-8495.

Parks and rec to have camp

The Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. will be holding day camp for youngsters three to 10. The camp will run five, two-week sessions from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. at the Scout House in Antioch.

There will be two age groups, one three-five and one six-10. Activities will include swimming, baseball and creative play.

A $40 fee will be charged for each two-week session. Parents wishing to sign up their children must enroll them in the full two-week session, and the children must stay in the class for a full day.

Queen applications ready at village hall

Applications are being taken for the Miss Antioch contest to be held in conjunction with July 4 family fun day in Antioch. Slated as a day to stay in Antioch, there will be many other fun activities held in town, such as a pie baking contest and many relay type games.

The Miss Antioch contest will be held after the fun-filled day, and the winner will represent Antioch at the Lake County Fair. The winner from the fair will represent Lake County in Springfield.

To enter, the applicant must be 16 before July 4 and 22 before Jan. 1, 1981. Women must be single with no children, and must have no modeling experience.

The contestant must live in the 395 telephone prefix, and an essay must be filled out on the topic, "what Antioch can do for me". There will be no talent contest.

More information is available through Antioch Parks and Rec coordinator Dee Lang. The final day to fill out an application is Monday, June 30.

Yearbook distribution announced

The yearbook for the 1979-80 school year at Antioch Community High School will be distributed in August. This change of delivery time was decided upon last spring by the class of 1980, last year's yearbook staff and the administration. The biggest advantage of the new delivery is that the book will have more coverage all under one cover. In the former delivery schedule, any activity occurring after Feb. 15 had to be covered in a 20 page spring supplement.

In May students who purchased a book will receive an autograph supplement free. Anyone who did not order a book may buy the booklet for a quarter. While school is in session, students can have faculty and students sign their supplement. Students can avoid vandalism and theft of their yearbooks by attaching the supplement to their book when it comes in August.

Distribution of yearbooks will be at a dance on August 15 in the north gym.

Students not able to pick up their book at the dance may do so the following week during matriculation between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

CARRY

Trucks carry 97 percent of frozen foods and vegetables in shipments of 500 miles or less.

Orientation slated for May 14

Antioch Upper Grade School will be hosting a parent/student orientation program for all present fifth graders who will be attending the school as sixth graders this fall. The program will start at 7:30 p.m., May 14 in the upper grade cafeteria.

A slide presentation, question and answer session, and school tour will be conducted. Refreshments will be served. We hope that all fifth grade students and their parents will make an attempt to attend this meeting.

Brownies to fly up

Parents are invited to witness third grade Girl Scouts in Brownie Troops 180, 185 and 332 "fly up" to become members of Junior Troop 204.

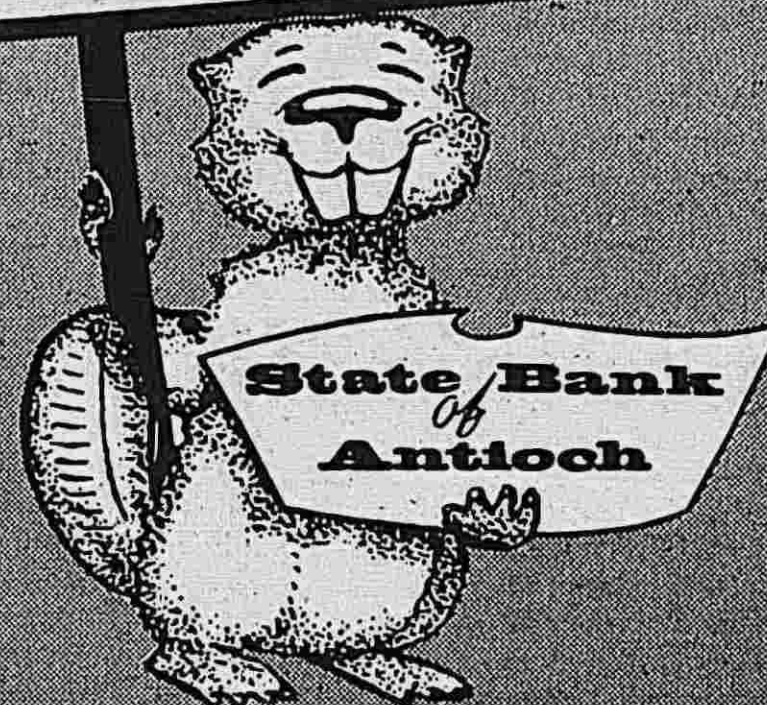

The ceremony is scheduled for 6 p.m., Wednesday, May 21, at the Scout House on Main St. Rain date will be the same time and place on May 28.

Hear there's going to be a bit of a bash for Tom Exon, longtime Antioch resident who will celebrate his 80th birthday on May 18th. Family and friends are invited to an open house on the Exon farm from 12:30-4 p.m. on that day. Hazel Marie and Rosemary Exon, and Florence Anderson will be hosting the event, and it sounds like it should be fun.

Coming up on July 13 is the Chamber of Commerce art fair. Chamber secretary Dixie said that applications are being filed for 12-foot spaces to display handmade arts and crafts. According to her, it will cost $12 for a space, which is a real savings compared to other fairs in the area. A radio station from Chicago is considering broadcasting live from the fair.

Speaking of real savings, I spotted Dixie the other day, putting a penny into her shoe. She'd found it on the sidewalk, and just thought it might make her lucky.

I guess a couple weeks ago, everyone's favorite upper grade school principal had the pleasure of eating a cream pie. Only Mr. Herbst didn't get it in the conventional manner—he got a cream pie in the face. On the last evening of the teen canteen, the social group for youngsters attending Antioch Upper Grade, students smeared the mentor's face. I hear it's an annual event, the pie that is, so it really didn't come as too much of a surprise.

Events coming up in our little town include the Antioch Jaycette's bowling for autism. That will be held from 9 a.m. on Sunday, May 18, at the Antioch Bowl. Bonnie Bruski told me that anyone wanting to bowl can call her at 395-5047 for information.

Also this weekend is the ceramic show to be held at the Antioch Auction Barn. The event will be held from 1-8 p.m. on the 17th and 18th.

The high school will be holding the junior prom on the 17th. Check next week to see who is crowned junior queen and king.

Happened to run into some new Antioch residents living on Channel Lake. Joe and Jean Jaworski told me they will be taking over the deli on North Ave. in a little while. Welcome and good luck. Also ran into Hot Nuts Ron the polkaer, haven't seen him in a coon's age.

Sure can't wait til the streets are fixed because it's just so hard to see the center lines and the turning lane lines. I saw this one person going north on Main St. in the left turn lane at Lake St. Guess the person just didn't know the routine around here very well. Sure was a lot of mud on the car, too...

Don't forget to sign up for the Antioch roadrace to be held June 1. I used to enter the races when I was a little younger, but this year I'm just going to watch from my front porch. I'm sure it will be nice out that day, so shine up those running shoes and let em rip! Applications can be picked up at the Parks office.

So sorry to hear that Jim Egem isn't feeling too well. He's resting in the hospital after having some breathing problems last week. Sure hope you feel better, Jim, and anybody that wants to send well-wishes could send them to his home.

Must be getting old. I was waiting for some friends of mine the other day while they were in shopping, and dosed off in the back seat of my car. Woke up to the smiling face of everyone's favorite township supervisor, Jim Fields peering in the window. Sure can't seem to stay awake for too many hours at a time. He and his lovely wife were enjoying Mother's Day. Now, Jim looks old enough to be a father, but Gail sure doesn't look old enough to be a mom.

Guess old Furlan's Dug Out Inn had a wonderful one-day tournament, save the rain, last weekend. Guess the place really got busy up there when the rain came down, because Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmet had to cancel the racing, and boy, everybody came in to the Dug Out all at once. Anyhow, I guess Eggman's Pub from Richmond won the 12 inch league tourney, and Shipley Construction out of Zion placed second. They received nice trophies, and according to Tommy Furlan, the tournaments are held once at the beginning of the season and once at the end. This coming weekend he said that there'll be a 12-inch invitational tourney with teams from Lake, Cook and Kenosha Counties. Should be lots of fun.

Can't wait til the fourth of July in Antioch. Just what we need is an old fashioned day in the park. What I really can't wait for is the pie baking contest. I hope the mayor enters, I hear he can really bake up a storm. Parks and rec is sponsoring the day, and they are real hopeful that residents will stay in town for a day filled with fun. There will also be a fun day in June too. The family picnics are just so fun.

Letter Board outlines building To The use, plans to construct Editor

Editor:

Wednesday, April 29, the combined bands from Lake Villa, Antioch Upper Grade School, and the Antioch High School held their Sequoia Area Music Festival. A more enjoyable evening of music would be hard to find in this area.

The bands, junior and senior, were just great. A lot of preparation went into making a marvelous evening of listening.

Surprisingly, attendance was less than it should have been. Too bad. A lot of people missed a lot of good music performed by the great kids of this area.

Thanks to Ms. Betty Garrett of Lake Villa, Mr. Larry Wagner of Antioch Upper Grade School and Mr. John Olisar of Antioch High School, it was an outstanding evening for me.

Frances Germain
Antioch

Further details on the proposed multiple use community room were finalized at the May 6 meeting of the Antioch Grade School board of education.

According to Supt. Don Skidmore, two years of meetings with Antioch High School and Antioch Village Board trustees have led to final agreement as to the type of building, location and purpose.

Located off the new Upper Grade parking lot and behind the north ball diamond, the $13,000 building, costs of which will be split three ways by the boards involved, will be all brick, 30 by 18 foot, with steel exterior doors and a hip roof.

THE BUILDING will contain two washrooms, three storage rooms and a concession area, as well as one storage exterior entrance to storage rooms individually signed to the high school, village park and school district boards.

Skidmore said a fall or early winter completion is expected. "We agreed that we will get it up as soon as possible but finish it as time permits," he said.

Report cards were also discussed at the school board gathering. Skidmore said, "We are still working on resolving some difference we have found in the philosophy of grading and in the organization of students for instruction" that would yield different types of grades for the same child, depending on grade level. The problems have not yet been resolved, he said.

THE BOARD ALSO continues to work on upgrading its teacher evaluation forms. Tenured teachers are required by board policy to be evaluated at least once a year, Skidmore said. A more complex and thorough type of evaluation is being sought, Skidmore said.

Negotiations between the teacher's union and the board are progressing smoothly, Skidmore said. "Everyone is fairly pleased," he said. Another negotiations meeting was to be held May 12.

Clint Glover was appointed at the meeting to serve as the district representative at the June 4 SEDOL meeting. One spokesman from each board in all 41 districts attends the meeting, Skidmore said. District 34's trustees agreed to ask Glover to vote in favor of next year's tentative SEDOL budget, which projects a 10.7 percent increase in daily tuition charges per pupil. "A significant part of the projected increases for services is coming from the demand from member districts for more behavioral disorders classes," according to Skidmore.

Advertising for bids for two baseball diamonds was approved by the school board. The school district will provide one backstop and the Antioch parks program the other, Skidmore said.

Marksman grab scores in state competition

Classes on gun use and safety sponsored by the Antioch Jaycees triggered fourth and 10th place wins for the students in the Illinois State Shooting Competition May 3 in Columbia.

Fourteen boys and girls ages 10 to 14, representing two Antioch teams, competed among the top 18 shooting teams in the state.

The competition tested marksmanship, knowledge of guns and gun safety. The two teams earlier placed third in the Chicago area competition and nabbed two second place awards in the Northern Illinois competition. SUCCESS IN the contests culminated the Antioch Jaycees Shooting Education program, sponsored through the U.S. Jaycees and Daisy Co.

Craig Dayton, chairman of the project, said, "This is the first year that the Antioch Jaycees have run this project and we are all extremely proud of our students' accomplishments."

Members of the team which shot its way to the top were: Rick Magee; Sue, Dale, Randy and Rod Steiskal; Kevin Psomas; Indus and Chris Gagnon; Ann and Margaret Ivy; Brian Rensch; Rob Christiansen; Dan Kanaby; and Bob Altman. Asst. Chairman Dick Rensch and instructor Jay Bruski also were instrumental in the project.

THE BB GUN shooting teams were gleaned from the top students in two series of gun classes held this year. Of 20 chosen for competition coaching, 14 were picked for the teams. The two seven-class series were offered free.

Dayton said the Jaycees and the shooting students wish to thank the community for support received during their door-to-door fund raising campaign held in April. "Enough money was donated to cover most of the expenses of sending the students to the competition matches," he said. On the trip home from Columbia, the students were able to visit the Arch in St. Louis and have lunch aboard a riverboat, he said.

DAYTON SAID special thanks go to the following individuals and businesses: Bill Brook; M.W. Heath and Sons; Antioch Savings and Loan; First National Bank of Antioch; Corbin's Travel Agency; Peterson Brother's Implement; Strang Funeral Home; and Awards by Kay Dan.

Trophies won by the young gun experts are on display at State Bank of Antioch.

Tel-Med handles many first month questions

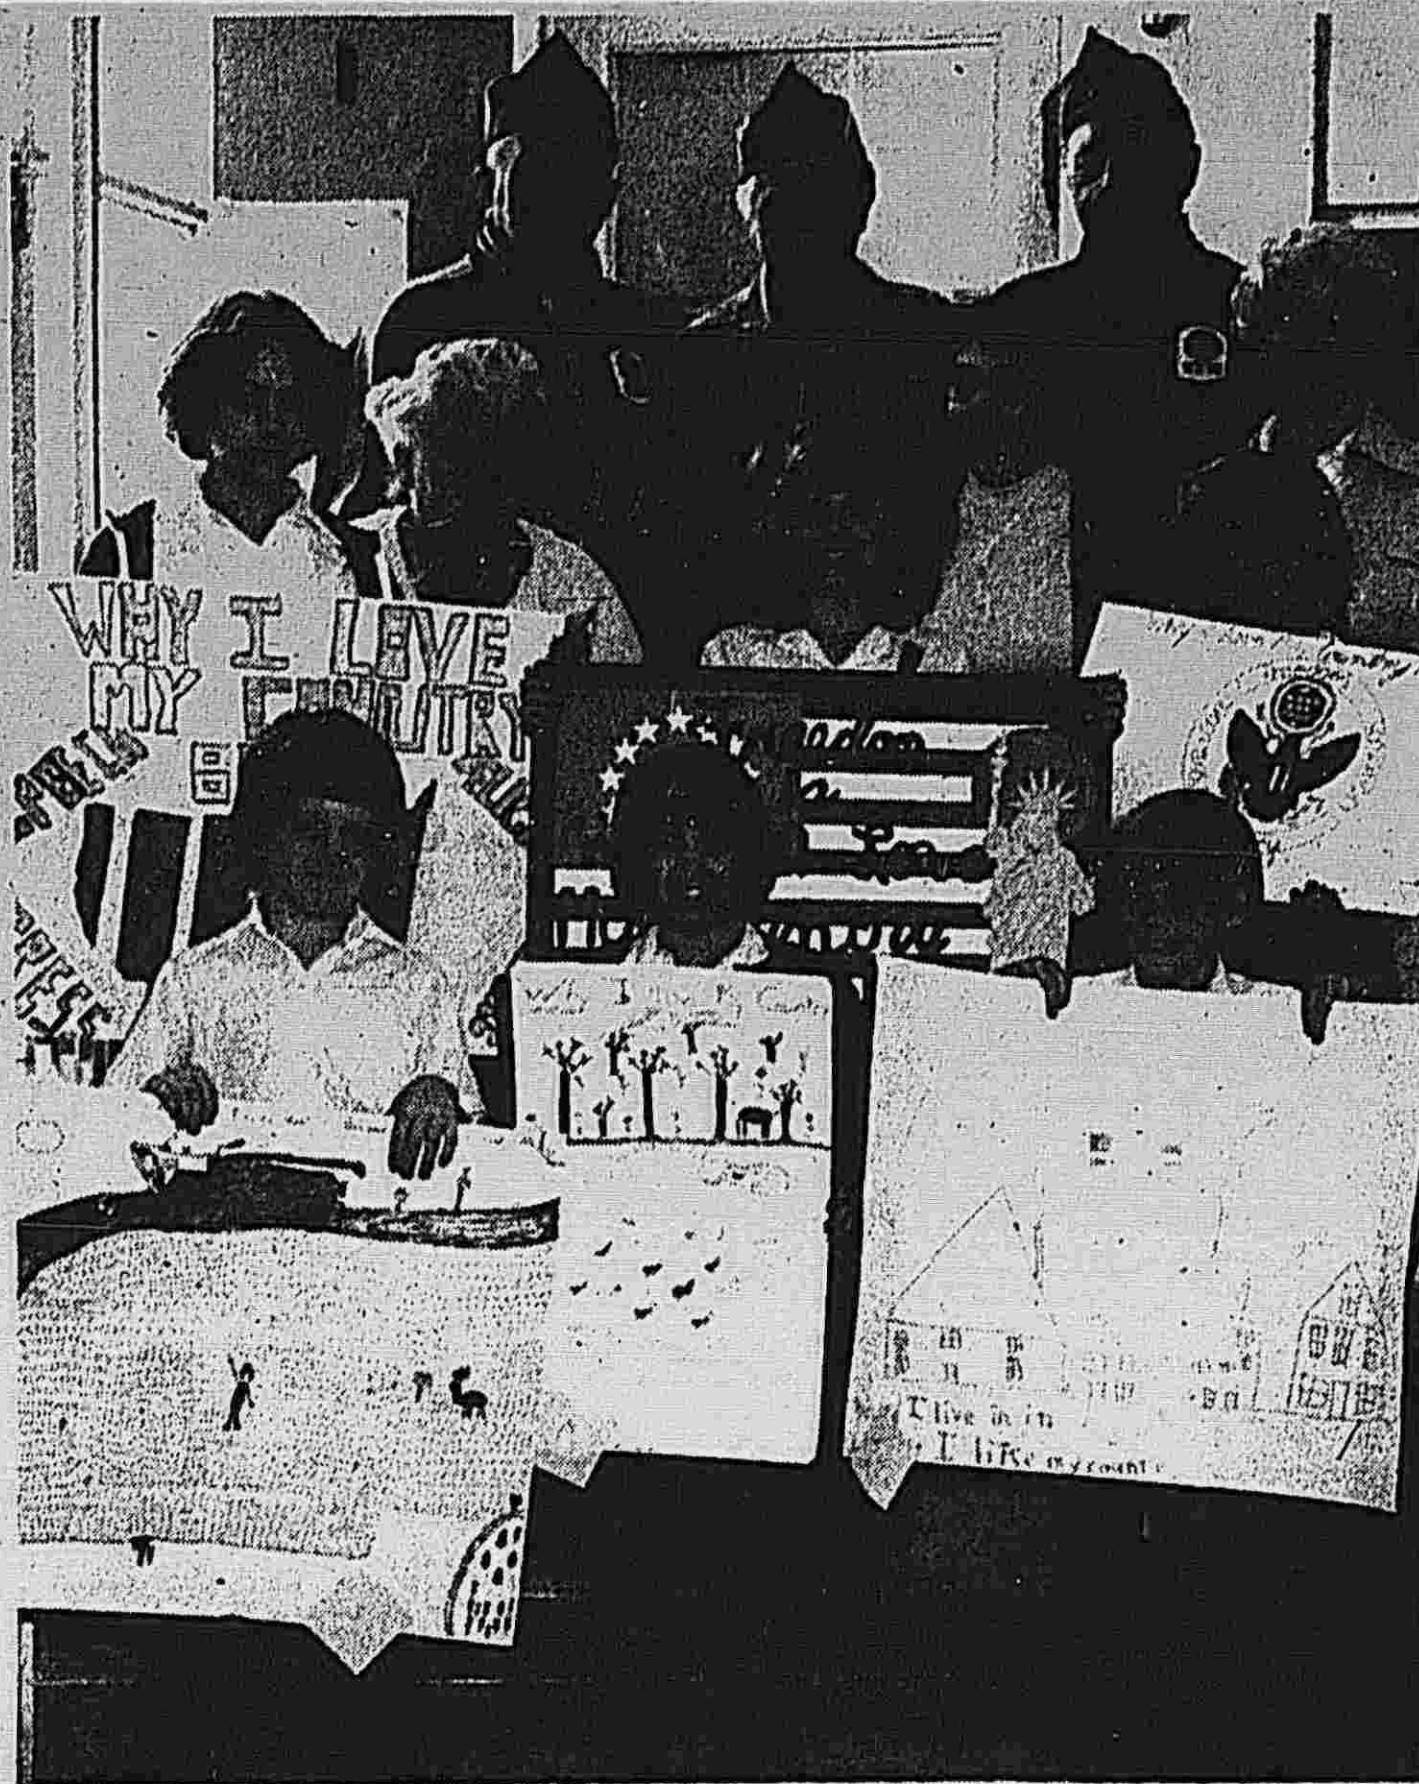

During the first month of operation, the Tel-Med system at Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan handled 10,672 calls from area residents who wanted to know more about specific medical problems.

The ten most requested tapes in order of popularity were: male sexual response, female sexual response, masturbation, marijuana, am I pregnant, bad breath, I'm just tired doctor, homosexuality, fears of the after-forty man and breast feeding your baby.

Volunteer Coordinator for Tel-Med at Victory Memorial, Nancy Svete, said the number of calls each day is declining but this was expected after the first month. She said the eight telephone lines into the system are now more readily available to callers and there is rarely a time when a person will get a busy signal.

Mrs. Svete also announced that Tel-Med brochures, listing the more than 200 subjects on tape, are now available at most public libraries in the area as well as in banks, savings and loans, drug stores, supermarkets, village halls, schools, College of Lake County and through some organizations.

Find a bargain enjoy a rummage

Looking for a bargain? There are many places to find them, discount stores, flea markets, second hand stores, but one of the most popular and sometimes the place with the best bargains is in yours or somebody else's own back yard.

Rummage sale season is in the air—not that people don't hold rummage sales during the winter, it's just that spring cleaning sometimes makes for more of the neighborhood bargain extravaganzas. There are just as many reasons for having rummage sales than there are for shoppers seeking them out.

Many that hold sales periodically cite reasons of cleaning out closets, getting rid of "mistakes", and just plain hating to throw anything away.

People that attend sales go for many reasons. "People with children can many times find good clothes for their kids at sales," one woman who holds a yearly sale commented.

Rummage sales are appealing to people looking for furnishings, collectors, and people curious to what kind of things can be picked up at the sales.

Many people combine goods and hold one big sale. "Neighborhood sales held outside have almost a fair type atmosphere," stated another holder of rummage sales.

The sales come in many varieties, garage, porch, basement and yard, but they are all of similar type—a place to go to get good items at a good price.

GREAT GARAGES — Just some of many bargains to be found at area garage sales, people frequent them to find items they need at good prices.

MAKE THIS THE SUMMER OF 78°.

Every degree you raise the temperature of an air-conditioned space means a 5% savings on the operating cost. Or, put another way, every degree you lower it adds 5% to the cost. Most people are comfortable at 78°. Most people are comfortable with the money they save at that temperature too.

AN AIR CONDITIONER IS ONLY AS GOOD AS ITS EER.

The machine's Energy Efficiency Ratio (EER) tells you if it makes good use of the energy it consumes. Be sure to compare numbers—the higher, the better.

DIRT CAN HURT.

The filter on your air conditioner has done a good job if it's dirty. But a dirty filter makes it harder for the machine to do a good job. Check your owner's manual on how to clean or replace the filter. Then do it regularly.

KEEP THE HEAT OUT.

Don't let it in in the first place. Pull the shades or curtains in rooms that receive direct sunlight. There'll be less work for the air conditioner to do.

MAYBE IT'S TIME FOR A TIMER.

You can come home to a nice cool house without leaving your room air conditioner on the whole time you're out. Turn it off when you leave, but set a timer—one made specially for air conditioners—to turn it on an hour before you return. You'll be just as cool, but you'll use a lot less electricity.

Christie's 'The Hollow' next PM&L production

"The Hollow", an Agatha Christie whodunit mystery, will be the next play performed by the PM&L players at the theatre in June. Opening date is Friday, June 7, with performances on following Fridays and Saturdays, June 13, 14, 20, and 21. Curtain time on all five nights will be 8:30 p.m.

"The Hollow" is an engaging murder mystery set deep in the Agatha Christie tradition. The PM&L production is directed by Bill Sershon. His cast of victims, suspects, and detectives includes Pat Sershon, from Antioch, as Henrietta Angkatell, a talented if not too well-meaning sort; George Blanksten, Antioch, as Sir Henry; Ricky Apostol, Antioch, as Lady Angkatell — "her ladyship is bats"; Tracy Kiederlin, Antioch, as Midge, the poor relation; Larry Bersie, Antioch, as Gudgeon, the suspicious butler; Bruce Stamm, Round Lake, as Edward, Nancy Balms, Antioch, as Doris, the not too well-trained housemaid; Dee Baum, Antioch, as Gerda Cristow, at least one leg of a sex triangle; Martin Domeracki, Antioch, as her husband John; Vicki Tolash, Libertyville, as Veronica Craye, an unbelievably glamorous movie star; Don Beveroth, Paddock Lake, as Inspector Colquhoun, who of course solves the mystery; and Bob McKee, Antioch, as Sergeant Penney, the inspector's trusty aide. With a cast like this, the possibilities of foul play are legion.

"The Hollow" is an intriguing mystery and good fun, rounding out PM&L's current and successful Season XIX. Be sure to call 395-3055 to make reservations and a chance to solve this mystery. Be at the theater by 8:15 p.m. on the night you plan to see the show.

TIME AGAIN — It's time in Antioch to give to American Legion on Poppy Days, the link honoring dead through service to living. Proceeds from this two-day event go toward helping hospitalized war victims and children losing their father in war. From left, Eva Fields, Myra Randall, and Iris Shroeder as they ready for May 23 and 24 event.

Cotillion tickets on sale

Tickets are available at the State Bank of Antioch and First National Bank for the Mental Health Assn. annual cotillion to be held May 31 at the Abbey on Lake Geneva. The Scotch Lads will be performing for dancing pleasure.

The Mental Health Assn. is dedicated to helping handicapped youth and young adults, a favorite cause being the Grove School in Lake Forest, an educational treatment center for the exceptional child. The association learned that the school offered a half million hours of quality services, and that the Antioch Mental Health Assn. contributed roughly 12 percent of this care in gifts of time or money.

According to the association, people attending the cotillion may make reservations to spend the night by calling the Abbey in Lake Geneva.

For the children there will be plenty of clowns, games, and painted faces. No admission is charged for the fair.

The historic Woodstock Opera House, also on the square, will be the scene of "Show Diddley", a children's program, at 1, 2:15 and 3:30 p.m. Featured are Freddy Fredricks with his Weco-Wacko Clowns, the Windsong Puppets, plus the Woodstock Thespians in Paul Sills' Story Theatre.

Tickets are $1 for adults, children under three are free. They are available at the opera house during the fair.

Pioneers urge craftsmen to join hobby show

by BETH RIECK

The Pioneer Senior Citizens Club met on Tuesday, May 6, at the Hastings Memorial Temple in Richmond.

The meeting was called to order by President Prudence Eberhardt. Violet Wilde offered the prayer after which 54 members and one guest enjoyed sandwiches and cakes. Happy birthday was sung to those observing birthdays in May.

The meeting then commenced with the pledging of allegiance to the America flag, reading of minutes and the correspondence by the Secretary, Arlene London. The treasurer's report was read by Wanda Todd.

A letter regarding the Senior Citizens of McHenry County's Hobby Show was read. This will be held at Woodstock's Square Park on June 21 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Any senior citizens who would like to display their hobby items, should be there at 8:30 and bring their own table. For more information contact Arlene at 815-675-2283.

A letter was also read concerning "Senior Citizen's Action Center." Any questions or if information is desired call 800-252-6565 or write Room 2020, 160 N. LaSalle St., Chicago 60601.

It was reported that Tony Meyer is very ill and in the hospital. Also a check was issued to the Community Church in memory of Ardella Anderson. The president also reported that

Harassment ends with car mishap

An Antioch man, Steven P. Povich, was involved in game of road harassment that led to the injury of a Park City man and damage to the Povich auto on May 7.

Injured was 33-year-old James Webb after he was hit by the pickup Povich drove. Povich told North Chicago police, that Webb began tailgating his truck at the intersection of Rte. 45 and Grand Ave. in Grandwood Park. He then pulled off the road to let Webb pass and then had to pass Webb. The Webb auto then tailgated Povich into the Abbott Laboratories parking lot in North Chicago.

Povich said that Webb then got out of his car with a jack and started to chase his truck as he pulled out of the lot to avoid further trouble. Webb allegedly ran in front of the truck and threw the jack, and Povich attempted to, but could not avoid hitting the man.

The man was taken to St. Therese Hospital, and neither man was charged in the incident.

50 YEARS AGO: MAY 15, 1930

Mrs. John C. Nixon, of Lake Bluff, surrendered to the sheriff's office in Waukegan on a warrant charging her with arson in connection with the burning of a cottage owned by her at Bluff Lake. Mrs. Nixon denies the charge saying she was 50 miles away when the fire happened.

The continued blowing of the horn on a new model Ford car which aroused horsemen sleeping in the rooms above probably prevented a disastrous fire at the Onwentsia hunt club near Milburn Sunday morning. Horsemen sleeping in rooms above the garage in which the two Fords were stalled were awakened about 4:30 a.m. by the prolonged blast of the motor horn. Fire had shortened its electrical connections and set it going.

W. B. Gilmer, lessee of the Blue Lantern pavilion, Channel Lake, received today 300,000 northern and wall-eyed pike for planting in the waters of Channel Lake and adjacent lakes. The minnows came from the Lincoln Park Hatchery, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase Webb and Mr. and Mrs. James Stern motored to Wonder Lake Sunday afternoon. This artificial lake, opened to the public just a few days ago, is said to be the second largest lake in the state. It was formed by the damming of Nippersink creek near Ringwood.

Organization of a glider club for Antioch men is in prospect, according to Ted Stanford, "Gliding," says Col. Charles Lindbergh, "is destined to become one of the nation's popular sports." A glider is merely a motorless airplane, the take-off being by man-power or by having the glider towed by automobile power. Gliding teaches the rudiments of flying.

30 YEARS AGO: MAY 11, 1950

Over three hundred friends and relatives attended the golden wedding anniversary honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Simons, well-known residents of Lake Marie, May 10. Guest of honor was Mrs. Mary Smart, mother of Mrs. Simons.

Mayor James McMillen has issued a proclamation declaring May 20 Armed Forces Day.

Fire Chief Charles Ade and several members of the newly organized Trevor fire department were guests of the Antioch department. Luncheon was served by Irving Walsh, newly appointed chef of the Antioch Fire Department. The Antioch members presented Walsh his chef's cap and apron, emblematic of his new job.

Two brothers who failed to settle their quarrel with a pair of boat oars and then with an unloaded .38 revolver at North Shore resort, Lake Catherine are sought by sheriff's deputies.

10 YEARS AGO: MAY 14, 1970

Diane Hunt of Antioch, has been selected as a member of the Stevens Point State cheerleading squad for the 1970-71 year. She is a freshman majoring in business education.

Robert Anderson and his daughter Kathy of Antioch, escaped injury Sunday, when their light plane flipped over in a field at Round Lake. Anderson said he tried to land the plane in a plowed field when he realized they were out of gas, however, the plane struck a furrow and flipped over.

Pickard, Inc., of Antioch, makers of fine china, has been selected by the states of Louisiana and Iowa to supply those states with the official state service. Henry Pickard, president of the organization that has been manufacturing fine china in Antioch since 1937, said that brings to four the number of states that have selected the firm to supply their state china.

Heather Petty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Petty was named queen of the Antioch High School Junior Prom. In the court were Dawn Ellis, Gail Kumpfer, Pat Shastal and Debbie Santi. Mike O'Neill, president of the junior class was king.

William Beese, 14, an eighth grade student at Grass Lake School, has won the top award at the state science fair held at the U of I at Champaign. Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Beese of Petite Lake.

Memory Lane

I understand there are two types of Homeowner's Insurance. What are they and how will I know which one is best for me?

All-risk (comprehensive) and named-peril (basic form and broad form) are the two basic kinds of policies for property insurance. Comprehensive, the most extensive and expensive of the two, protects you against loss from all perils except those specifically stated as exclusions in your policy. The named-peril basic form limits insurance by covering only 11 perils. Covering an additional seven more perils such as some forms of water damage from plumbing or household appliances, the broad form is more extensive and usually considered a wise buy. To get a complete answer and understanding, talk with your agent, telling how much you own, how much you want to pay for insurance and how much you are willing to risk.

CLEANING OF BRACED TEETH

A dentist puts braces on a child's teeth to straighten them or correct dental handicaps. But braces make teeth harder to clean, can act as food traps and thus increase the chance of tooth decay. But this can easily be overcome. One of the best methods of cleaning debris from braced teeth is the oral irrigator - an electric device which directs a pulsating stream of water onto the teeth.

Dental researchers at Loyola University tested this premise. Braced youngsters were divided into equal groups. The first brushed their teeth after each meal, then used an oral irrigator once a day. The second group also brushed but followed with a simple rinsing.

After nine weeks, group one (the irrigators) showed an 80% reduction in total bacteria. In contrast, the group or rinsers had only an insignificant drop in bacterial count. The results indicate that if the irrigator cleaning process is combined with brushing, proper diet, and frequent examinations, a child can have straight teeth without the penalty of additional cavities.

Plaque will be more effectively removed by using a dry toothbrush (no toothpaste!); then use a little toothpaste over the front teeth and tongue.

A public service with the aim of promoting a better dental health environment. From the office of: ROBERT J. PAULETTI, D.D.S., Route 1, Antioch. Phone: (312) 395-1363.

Big hits still needed; Sequoit pitching building

The Antioch High School varsity baseball team is preparing for its final run of the season as the Diamond Sequoit's season is quickly drawing to a close.

The Sequoits are scheduled to host Wauconda on Wednesday, May 14, before traveling to Lake Zurich on Friday, May 16 and then coming home again to face Stevenson on Monday, May 19.

Antioch travels to Libertyville for a first round Illinois High School Assn. game against the Wildcats on Tuesday, May 21.

Warren hosts the Sequoits in the final Northwest Suburban Conference game on Wednesday, May 21, in Gurnee.

TERRY DEWAR is scheduled to go on the mound for the Sequoits against Wauconda, according to Coach Tom Baba.

"He has done some good pitching," he said of his junior. "He lost to Grant 6-4 and to Barrington 5-4."

"They'll probably go with Howard (Paul)," he continued. "We lost to them 2-0 last time. We've got to get the big hits. That's what it all boils down to."

"WE HAD A practice game with them," Coach Tom Baba said of Libertyville. "and we lost 4-2. They've been up and down this year, like we have. I just don't know about them."

Grant's Bulldogs defeated the Sequoits 6-4 on May 7 in Fox Lake, but not before Antioch gave them all they could handle.

Antioch outhit the home team, 11-6, however, they left nine men on base.

Tom Bernet singled in the fifth inning scoring a run and scored himself when David Berchtold drove him in.

MARK POMAZAK doubled to score Berchtold in the third inning to tie the score at 3-3 at the time.

Grant came up with one in the bottom of the inning to take a 4-3 lead.

Jeff Crichton's single in the seventh inning produced the final Antioch run with single tallies in each of the fourth and sixth innings being enough for Grant to squeak out a win.

The Sequoits came out with one last gasp in the final inning as they had runners on second and third, with two outs, and the batter grounded out.

"WE DIDN'T GET that run production we needed," said Baba.

Grayslake came to Antioch on May 9 and the league leading Rams defeated their hosts 13-3.

Antioch score a pair of runs in the bottom of the second inning as Berchtold was hit by a pitch with the bases full, forcing in Pete Weber from third; and Unrein followed with a base on balls forcing home Deno Sisto.

In the bottom of the third, Antioch scored their final run when Pomazak tripled and was singled home by Crichton.

GRAYSLAKE HAD four runs in the fourth to open a 5-3 lead and exploded with eight runs in the final inning, including three homeruns, to ice the victory.

On May 12, Antioch scalped the Panthers 4-3 at Round Lake.

The Sequoits rallied with three of their four hits for the game in the sixth inning as they came up with all four runs.

Glen Flanagan was hit by a pitch to start the comeback off. Winning pitcher Tim Koesser followed with a single and Unrein's double scored Flanagan with the first run.

Dan Larson followed with a walk to fill the bases, and Bernet came through with a double which cleared the bases and score the winning run.

Koesser struck out a dozen Panther batters and walked two as he had two earned runs. He raised his record on the mound to 3-2.

Antioch raised its record to 3-7 in the NWSL and 3-13 overall with the win.

CORRECTION

The aerobic dance class offered through Antioch Parks is on Tuesdays rather than Mondays, as it was listed in last week's addition of the News, and the CPR class begins at 7:30 p.m. rather than at 8 p.m. as that was also incorrectly stated in last week's addition.

Playmore Resort changes owners

Mr. and Mrs. D's Playmore Resort, located on Channel Lake in Antioch, should become Contessa Resort by the end of May, according to three-year owner John Diviak. Diviak has sold the business to William and Jan Koch of Arlington Heights.

According to Diviak, the resort will be maintained in the same fashion. "There is a cocktail lounge, two dining rooms and a good cross section of people who enjoy the resort," Diviak stated.

The recently remodeled resort, which is located on Woodbine Ave., off Lake Ave., off west Rte. 173, also has five cottages and nine rental rooms in the building. There is 150-foot sand beach, and 427 feet of lake frontage property.

"PEOPLE COME FROM as far away as Cleveland. There are third generation visitors, also," Diviak said of the resort. "We will be moving away, but will be spending many weekends here," he added.

The resort has changed hands four times through the years, and was known as Stanley's Oakland Resort for 22 years. It then was Mr. Wonderful's for five years. Then Mr. and Mrs. D's. "I always wanted to own a place like this," Diviak commented. "Now I've got it out of my system and will be keeping busy doing other things." Diviak has part in two other businesses including the metal stamping and spinning business.

Diviak and his wife Kathleen, have eight sons and one daughter, and he pointed out that the whole family pitched in with the business.

Koch's and his family of two sons and a daughter, will be moving to the area. They bring with them 12 years of experience in food and liquor management.

The hours of the resort are 8 a.m.-2 a.m. on weekdays and 3 a.m. on weekends.

This resort has brought over 36 years of pleasure to many, some are great-grandchildren and their own children that are now enjoying this favorite vacation spot. The past: Stanley's Oakland Resort 29 yrs.; Mr. Wonderful's Resort 5 yrs.; Mr. D's Playmore Resort 3 yrs. Mr. & Mrs. D want to thank all of you for your patronage. We have enjoyed serving you for the past 3 years. We have made many friends that we will cherish as long as we live. We plan on spending many weekends on the chain, this will give us more time to socialize on a customer basis, bringing our friendship closer. We know you will become fond of the Koch's (Cook's). They have many years of experience in this type of operation. Looking forward to a prosperous and pleasant season.

Thank You Again
